

DR. SUSAN SEED IN TOMBS FOR A WEEK

Missing Chiropractor Had Been Arrested and Convicted as Shoplifter.

GAVE HER MAIDEN NAME

Released on Bail After Revealing Her Identity to Court Officials.

Mrs. Susan Seed, one of the most successful practitioners of chiropractic healing in the city, returned to her apartment in the Nevada, Broadway and Sixty-ninth street, Friday night, after spending a week in the Tombs prison. It was learned yesterday. She was released in $500 bail after she abandoned the assumed name she gave at the time of her arrest on a charge of shoplifting. She identified herself only after it became evident that she would have to remain in the Tombs at least until March 5, to which date she had been remanded for sentence.

Dr. Seed, who is about fifty years old, and the widow of a business man of Bay City, Mich., was assisted in her efforts to avert her situation becoming known by two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth P. Brand and Miss Katherine Condon, who came here from Cleveland. They took possession of the apartment in the Nevada and explained to patients that Dr. Seed, after being injured in an automobile accident in Newark, was being cared for in the home of a friend in that city.

While she was in the Tombs Dr. Seed was reported to the police to be missing. The bureau of missing persons began a search for her that was abandoned Thursday, when her relatives reported she had been found in Newark.

Dr. Seed was arrested in the department store of James McCrory, Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, by an agent of the Stores Mutual Protective Association. The agent charged that she had stolen two bags, eight napkins and a book rack, the total value of which was $48. She gave the name of Susan Condon. This is said to have been her maiden name.

When "Susan Condon" was arraigned Thursday before Justice Voorhees, Moss and O'Keefe in Special sessions, she pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny and was remanded to the Tombs pending investigation and sentence. She gave her age as 41, said she was born in Canada and was a seamstress.

After "Susan Condon" had been remanded to the Tombs Miss Mangin, a probation officer, was assigned to investigate her case. She identified the prisoner as Dr. Seed, but the latter refused to acknowledge the identification until she became certain there was no other way to obtain her freedom.

Miss Mangin notified the two sisters of Dr. Seed. The sisters retained James Murray of 117 West Tenth street as counsel and caused word to be sent to the bureau of missing persons that Dr. Seed had been found in Newark. Mr. Murray visited Chief Justice Kernochan Friday night and explained the situation. The Chief Justice ordered the release of Dr. Seed in $500 bail. Miss Florence Hand of 132 West Twenty-eighth street provided security for the bail.

Dr. Seed's financial resources are substantial. Her apartment in the Nevada is handsomely furnished. Dr. Seed came to New York six years ago after the death of her husband. She had become interested in chiropractic healing through the attendance of a chiropractor on her mother. After she had qualified to practice here, she opened an office in 221 West Twenty-second street. She moved to the Nevada eighteen months ago.

Milburn Heads Barnard Drive.

John G. Milburn, president of the New York City Bar Association, will head the men's committee organized to help the women graduates of Barnard College raise $50,000 to complete the endowment fund campaign. George McNary, formerly President of the Board of Aldermen, and James Lees Laidlaw are serving on the committee.

3 CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH IN BED

Kick the Covers Against Stove When Asleep.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mager, tenants of a farm owned by Andrew Sullivan in Old South road and Centerville avenue, Union Course, Queens, a dairying section, left the house early yesterday morning to milk the cows without disturbing their three children—Josephine, 1; Benjamin, 3; and Joseph, 5. In less than half an hour the house was destroyed by fire and the three children burned to death. Three other children, those of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Mewthek, tenants, were saved.

The Mager children were asleep on a bed drawn close to a coal stove, and it is believed one of them, restless from the heat, kicked the covers over the foot of the bed against the side of the stove, igniting them. A fourth child, an infant, was with Mrs. Mager.

Walter Johnson, 3, was burned to death in the home of his parents, 2072 West Eleventh street, Brooklyn. It is believed his clothes were ignited while playing with a lighted oil stove in his bedroom. His screams brought his mother from another part of the house. She found the bed in flames and could not reach the child. Firemen put out the blaze.

W. K. VANDERBILT LEAVES FOR FRANCE

Will Consult Specialist There on Heart Disease.

William K. Vanderbilt, in poor health, although somewhat better than when he arrived here two months ago, sailed yesterday on La Savoie of the French line for France. Mr. Vanderbilt was accompanied to the pier by members of his family, but sailed alone, taking with him only his wife and a nurse.

Mr. Vanderbilt is a specialist on heart diseases when he reaches Paris, and on board will be cared for by Dr. Georges Mace, the surgeon of the liner. Mr. Vanderbilt said his wife would join him soon in France. Immediately after going aboard the liner he retired to his suite to rest.

Other passengers on La Savoie were Mrs. Tamaki Mura, Japanese soprano of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, who sailed with her husband on her way to Monte Carlo; Gen. Gustavo Salinas of the Mexican army, bound for France on a mission for the Mexican Government; Mrs. L. A. Fisher of Sacramento, an American woman who holds a commission as captain in the Arabian army for her relief work among Arabian children; Capt. M. H. Blaise and Lieut. Seymour de Ricel of the French army, and John Gains of the National Greek Steam Navigation Company.

FRIEND OF TROTZKY FACES DEPORTATION

Hearing of Gregory Weinstein Begins on Ellis Island.

The hearing of Gregory Weinstein, personal friend of Trotsky and formerly editor of the radical Russian newspaper Novy Mir, opened yesterday before a board of special inquiry at Ellis Island. If the board decides Weinstein is an alien who believes in the overthrow of government by violence he may be deported. The Government, represented by W. J. Peters of the law department of the immigration service and three other lawyers of the Department of Justice, introduced much evidence, including radical propaganda, in the three and a half hours of the hearing, and it is probable that so much of this matter is in the Government's hands that it will take a long time to complete the hearing.

Charles Recht, attorney for the accused Russian, said the Government had brought in a great mass of material which had no connection with Weinstein at all and that 75 per cent. of this would be thrown out. At the request of the Federal attorneys the hearing was adjourned for two weeks to give them more time to get the evidence against Weinstein in shape.

3,888,000 Eggs on Way Here.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Fifteen carloads of eggs, 3,888,000 in all, were shipped from Petaluma, near here, today to New York city, the Federal Bureau of Markets announcing. The announcement said that forty-six carloads of eggs, valued at $420,000, have gone East from here since February 15.

TRICOTINE SUITS FOR SPRING

Tricotine, the dominant fabric for Spring tailor-mades, lends itself with equal adaptability to suits of severely simple styling or the more elaborate effects of embroidery and ripple flares. Whichever style may be yours, you will find it here in largest selection at prices unusually low.

Women's Tricotine Suits
Special 115.00

This tricotine suit shown in the sketch has three winning points in its favor. First of all it is new. Indeed, it has only just arrived in our Suit Section; the second point is that in quality and tailoring it answers every requirement that a suit should answer for good service; last but not least, its fine embroidery, double side ripple, and pointed front marks it as being something more than just a suit. It is a creation of which any woman may well be proud. We have many more models besides this one, equally distinctive, and priced with equal moderation.

Women's Extra Size Tricotine Suits
72.50

Our regular $79.75

The large woman who secures one of these well fitting suits may congratulate herself no less on the slenderizing effect of long lines and perfect tailoring than on the extremely good value for suits of such quality and fashion. The model is strictly tailored and is braidbound. The lining, an attractive feature of this suit, is of wavy silk, interestingly patterned in navy blue.

Women's Serge and Tricotine Suits

Special 45.50

We especially recommend these suits to the woman who wishes something really smart for an economical price. There are several models for choice, including the strictly tailored styles and others with Tuxedo collars, pongee overlay collars, inverted pleats, braiding and other individualizing details.
